

Dr. Stephen Turner Residency Director and Faculty Scholarship

Scholarship application timeline: April 15, 2026 to May 6, 2026

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP:

The American College of Lifestyle Medicine and American Board of Lifestyle Medicine are pleased to offer the Dr. Stephen Turner Residency Director and Faculty Scholarship, an all-inclusive lifestyle medicine certification scholarship for residency directors, associate directors, and faculty interested in adopting the Lifestyle Medicine Residency Curriculum into their residency program.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Apply directly via the QR code or visit our website: Application deadline: May 6, 2026, at 2:00 pm EST.

Scholarship recipients will be selected and notified via email by June 15, 2026. ABLM 2026 exam registration deadline is September 30, 2026 at 6:00pm PST

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

Scholarships are available to Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Preventive Medicine, Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, and Occupational Medicine* residency leaders interested in learning more about lifestyle medicine and in implementing the Lifestyle Medicine Residency Curriculum program at their residency site.

- Scholarships are available and limited to one per US residency site
- Sites already implementing the Lifestyle Medicine Residency Curriculum do not qualify*
- Individuals who have previously received the scholarship do not qualify
- This scholarship is only applicable for those seeking to certify in 2026. Exam registrations are final and are not transferable. No extensions are possible.
- If awarded, ACLM is unable to offer refunds for previously purchased scholarship components.

*While our current focus is on obtaining new sites and residency leaders from the program types listed above, we gladly welcome and accept applications from residency leaders representing all specialty types and from new programs within already-established LMRC sites.
